

ISSUE 4

Rage Magazine is brought to you this month by the blood sweat and tears of

Publisher/Editor            Marcus
Editor                            Hasi

Sports Editor                Mike Bracken
Dance Editor                 Gareth Lancaster
Indie Editor                  Colin Hamilton

Contributors - Stephen Jelbert, Karen
Trevelyan, Pete Morris, Jimmy Blackburn.

Ads Manager                 Tyler Moorehead
    +44 (0)181-767-6559

Front Cover by Carole Bellon

Rage Logo by Stanski

Rage Offices : 2 Kendal Place, London, W1H
editor@ragepro.demon.co.uk

Thanks to - John Loder at Southern, Web
Media, Cyberia, and anyone who's helped.

Issue 5 the Student special-is on the net the first Tuesday in September

HURLEY FREE ZONE - AGAIN!

A magazine in at least six Sections !!

Sport
Indie
Dance
Arts reviews
Problem pages
Features
Write to us and we'll create more !

Horoscopes

Our very own Gypsy Rose Lee tells you what the month has in store for you. Starting with Birthday boys and girls.

Cancer:

The passionate and emotional side of Cancer is ruled over by the Moon, which means you're dramatically affected by the Sun and Moon's eclipses - which incidentally are next happening in October. So expect some big changes my darlings in both affairs of the heart and your home life. And that doesn't simply mean splashing out and getting your floorboards stripped!

Leo:

OK Leos this is the time of year when you sit down, have a fag and get your house in order big time. You'll soon realise that any problems you've had so far are water off a penguin's back. Keep your mouth shut, but your head down and there could be big things in store for you.

Virgo:

You've got some great opportunities floating your way, so grab them with open arms. Your want is to walk on the wild side and your partner, if you've got one, might find it difficult to cope with. They'll soon realise, however, that you want to make something of yourself and don't want to spend your life putting up shelves and visiting Ikea.

Libra:

You are in an explosive situation at the moment and you can't make up your mind what you want or where you want to be. Venus and the Sun are currently confronting the unpredictable Uranus so anything could happen. You've either got to sort your life out or go build a nuclear shelter at the bottom of the garden and sit in it till this period is over.

Scorpio:

The stars are begging you to take a step back and look at what you've got sweetheart. You might think everything is very hunky-dory at the moment, but if you check out the picture you will find it's not. You'd better get those Crayola crayons out and start drawing up a master plan for your life again, that or get some therapy.

Sagittarius:

Sagittarians sure know how to play the field, and you'll be doing it full on in the next couple of weeks. Basically get out there and flirt your ass off kid and the world could be your proverbial oyster, instead of that little mussel you are playing around with at the moment. Get it right and the cheques will come rolling in.

Capricorn:

You will have discovered over the past few years that no matter how close you are to someone, and I'm not talking a rumble under the duvet here, you need your space. A few people around you have yet to realise that. If you don't make them come around to your way of thinking a murder mystery party might turn into the real thing.

Aquarius:

As Mars, the planet of mega passion, goes racing through your chart it's definitely not work that you are thinking about. You might not be getting buckets of oats at the moment, but put your orgasmic bits on hold. There are some golden opportunities at work coming up and they ain't going to come your way if lust takes over.

Problems

Pisces:

Yep, you've been walked all over yet again. A typical Piscean trait to be used like a door mat. Well just for once you are going to put up your guards and say no, no, no. For once you need some confidence building and the only way you will get it is by getting your own way for once. But if you are happy being dumped on from a great height ignore this advice.

Aries:

Ariens surprisingly are pretty creative little things, and we're not talking Blue Peter specials out of a few loo rolls, some sticky back plastic and a pan handle here. In reality though, you are hardly likely to be the next Damien Hirst, so get those trainers firmly on the ground and put some energy into real life situations - and they don't have to be dramas.

Taurus:

You are usually pretty open with people, to the point of telling new partners exactly how many people you've slept with and their names in alphabetical order. Well, at the moment you would be well advised to keep your gob shut and get on with things, or you might find yourself in a very sticky situation that will take you off more than a few party invitation lists.

Gemini:

When Mercury confronts Capricorn this month you could find that people who help you out on the cash front might not be as co-operative as usual. It might be your bank manager or a mate that lends you a tenner to go down the pub. It might seem tough, but in reality it will teach you a lesson and make you learn to stay on your own Junior Gaultier platforms.

As we always say on rage, "a problem shared is a problem doubled" Join Dr Struckoff in some interesting medical judgements

Dear Dr Struckoff

Like my European female counterparts I think hairy ampits are fab, totally sexy and far out. Why shave off what nature intended, guys don't have to. Unfortunately my boyfriend doesn't think quite like me. He thinks it is ugly and I look like an extra for Planet of the Apes. How can I keep my hairy ampits and my boyfriend at the same time?

yours unshaven from Shrewsbury.

Dr Struckoff replies
Darling you are in every right to stay as hairy as you like, although it might be a bit heavy on the odour on these hot summer days we've been having. Tell your man from me that I've had a word with my supermodel mates, you know Claudia, Naomi and the girls, and they say it's cool. So tell your beloved that if it's good enough for them its good enough for you.

Dear Dr Struckoff
I ve been contemplating getting my nipples pierced. I think it looks great and is dead sexy. But I m scared of how much it is going to hurt. Do you think I m being pathetic ?

Scaredy cat from South London

Dr Struckoff replies
Well you would be mad to think it wouldnt hurt in the first place, so it shows you ve got some grey matter up there ticking away somewhere. Of course it hurts and they ll be sore for weeks, but sweetheart you must realise by now that we have to suffer for fashion. If you are that pathetic you could always have your ear pierced just to see how it feels and take it from there. Be warned - you ll become addicted to the pain and probably end up having every conceivable bit of you pierced.

Dear Dr Struckoff
I ve invested in these seasons must have - a Jackie-O dress. The problem is I ve got really saggy upper arms so I can t wear it. Help, before my street cred goes gurgling down the plug hole big time.
Depressed fashion victim from Derby

Dr Struckoff replies.
Either take it back to the shop, accept you are going to wear it, fat sagging arms or not or take some firm action now. Remember where there is no pain there is no gain in the fashion stakes so my advice is get firming those triceps now. Try brushing your skin with a hemp mitt or a loofah to boost the lymphatic system. It might sound barbaric, but believe me sweetie it works.

Dear Dr Struckoff
I went on holiday to Ibiza feeling fat and white. After a few days basting in the sun I was brown as a bit of Kentucky Fried Chicken and felt like Linda Evangelista. I pulled this gorge swarthy baman and we had a ball. I m now back at my job in rainy old London and miss the man who can make the best strawberry daiquiris in the world. What can I do ?

Totally miserable from Morden.

Dr Struckoff replies
You might have enjoyed sharing bodily fluids with your hairy baman whilst you were in Ibiza, but I m damn sure you wouldnt want to be seen dead with him here sweetheart. Hit might sound hard, but in the cold light of day he probably looks more like the man at your local kebab house than the Keanu

Reeves look-a-like you have fixed firmly in your head. Remember you are not Shirley Valentine, so get him out of your head, get on your glad rags and get out there on the pull. Those English guys really ain t that bad you know once you get them into a hot sweat.

Dear Dr Struckoff
My girlfriend is totally obsessed with Johnny Dean from Menswear, who incidentally I ve only just discovered are some hip, trendy band. She makes me listen to their music from morning till night and even makes me wear a Johnny Dean mask in bed. Its driving me crazy, I adore her but I can t take anymore of it

Totally desperate from Derby.

Dr Struckoff replies
You ve never heard of Menswear - where have you been hanging out - on the Moon. I have a feeling your girlfriend is a lot more hip than you darling and you are wasting your time. You ve either got to get hip and go with the flow or get out of the kitchen - sounds like it is far too hot in there for you already.

“get on your glad rags and get out there on the pull.”

